ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Information regarding non-sellable products for each store is stored in a database. The non-sellable product is a product that cannot be sold at that particular store.
If a purchaser selects a non-sellable product from a catalog of a store, then the purchaser is introduced to another store in which the same product is a sellable product.

5